EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Congressional Club Entertains Its Members and Friends.

Debut Parties Filled a Busy Afternoon—Today's Program.

The first formal hospitality at the new Congressional Club was held last night when a reception with a brilliant attendance of members and their friends filled the evening. The two floors in use were profusely adorned with American beauty roses, chrysanthemums and foliage plants. An orchestra played and a buffet supper was served in the dining room.

Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, president of the club, received in the auditorium, having Mrs. John B. Henderson, the honor guest of the evening, near her, and also the members of the building committee, Mrs. Volstead of Minnesota, Mrs. Humphrey of Washington and Mrs. Towner of Iowa. Other assistants in the pleasures of the evening were Mrs. Champ Clark, Mrs. Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, Mrs. Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma, Mrs. Alice Pomeroy of Ohio, Mrs. Henry Cooper of Wisconsin, Mrs. Underwood of Alabama, Mrs. R. L. Henry of Texas, Mrs. Lloyd of Missouri, Mrs. James R. Mann of Illinois, Mrs. Sims of Texas, Mrs. Stephens of Texas, Mrs. Mondell of Wyoming, Mrs. Finley of South Carolina, Mrs. Ernest W. Roberts of Massachusetts, Mrs. Shackelford of Missouri, Mrs. Padgett of Tennessee, Mrs. Kahn of California, Mrs. Garner of Texas, Mrs. Gregg of Texas, Mrs. Knowland of California, Mrs. Smith of Texas, Mrs. Garrett of Tennessee, Mrs. Lee of Georgia, Mrs. French of Idaho, Mrs. Anthony of Kansas, Mrs. Edwards of Georgia, Mrs. Hardy of Texas, Miss Slomp of Virginia, Mrs. Byrne of Tennessee, Mrs. Good of Iowa, Mrs. Kinkead of New Jersey, Mrs. Morgan of Oklahoma, Mrs. Oldfield of Arkansas, Mrs. Russell of Missouri, Mrs. Byrnes of South Carolina, Mrs. Copley of Illinois, Mrs. Danforth of New York, Mrs. Francis of Ohio, Mrs. Porter of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Prouty of Iowa, Mrs. Baker of California, Mrs. Rouse of Kentucky, Mrs. Smith of New York, Mrs. Underhill of New York, Mrs. F. H. Briggs, Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mrs. W. M. Geddes, Miss Ellen D. Hale, Mrs. C. C. McChord, Mrs. J. T. McDermott and Mrs. Edwin F. Sweet.

Several members of the cabinet and their wives, including the Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan, Secretary and Mrs. Daniels and the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, were in the company.

Miss Helen MacLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. MacLeod, and Mr. James W. Clift were married at the home of the bride's parents, 1347 Ward street, last night. The Rev. John T. Ensor, pastor of Calvary M. E. Church, officiated, in the presence of the members and a few intimate friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she wore a gown, worn by her mother at her wedding, of cream satin surah and pearl trimming with a tulle veil fastened by pearls. She wore a pendant of pearls and diamonds, and carried white roses and lilies, the gift of the bridegroom. She was attended by Mrs. Worth Hale of Cambridge, Mass., a classmate at George Washington University, and member of the Phi Beta Phi Society, as matron of honor. Mrs. Hale wore white lace over pink satin and carried pink roses.

The bride's little niece, Miss Helen Louise MacLeod, was flower girl. Dr. Paul Johnson was best man.

Seven members of the sorority were ribbon bearers, forming an aisle. They were Miss Margaret White, Miss Margaret Merrill, Miss Ruth Ritter, Miss Roda Watkins, Miss Eleanor Gannett, Miss Mable Scott and Miss Ruth Denham. Miss Mary Kelly played on the piano and Miss Elizabeth Wilmer played the violin. Before the ceremony they played the "Meditation," from "Thais," followed by the wedding march from "The Marriage of Figaro," and during the ceremony "O Promise Me." After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clift will live at 1347 Girard street.

Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, wife of the chief of staff of the army, Col. Wilbur E. Wilder, commander of Fort Meyer, Col. and Mrs. Charles T. Menoher and Mrs. W. J. Glasgow received last night at the hop at Fort Meyer.

The second of a series of seven informal dances to be given under the auspices of the Sunday school of All Souls' Church will be held tomorrow evening at the Holton Arms gymnasium, 1742 Church street. The patronesses are Mrs. D. U. Fletcher, Mrs. Whitman Cross, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Ernest Ricknell, Mrs. Gerry, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Crandall, Miss Koetz, Mrs. Learned, Mrs. C. V. Riley and Miss Fletcher. Mrs. Bastian and Mrs. Fulton will act as hostesses.

Capt. and Mrs. Gibbons will give a dance January 2 at the Playhouse to meet Miss Wiley and Miss Ruth Wilson.

Maj. Low and Commander Bringer were hosts last night at the third of the dinners which the small club of Army, Navy and Marine Corps officers have been giving at the Army and Navy Club.

Among those present were Maj. Mr. Arthur D. Call will be the guest of honor at the Congressional Club this afternoon when he will give an address on "Our Peace Program in View of the European War." The president of the club, Mrs. Fletcher, will receive, assisted by Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Padgett. Mrs. Brady of Idaho and Mrs. Bartlett of Georgia will preside at the tea table.

The following will assist in entertaining: Mrs. Aiken of South Carolina, Mrs. Barchfield of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Alexander of Missouri, Mrs. Anthony of Kansas, Mrs. Austin of Tennessee, Mrs. Horland of Missouri, Mrs. Alney of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Anderson of Minnesota, Mrs. Bathrick of Ohio, Mrs. Blackmon of Alabama, Mrs. Abercrombie of Alabama, Mrs. Avis of West Virginia, Mrs. Baker of New Jersey, Mrs. Barkley of Kentucky, Mrs. Beakes of Michigan, Mrs. Bell of California, Mrs. W. E. Andrews, Mrs. Job Barnard, Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mrs. W. G. Brantley, Miss Mabel Boardman and Miss Marian Barney. Miss Alexander of Missouri, Miss Austin of Texas and the Misses Baker of New Jersey will usher.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Kindelberger entertained several hundred guests yesterday at a tea dance at Rauscher's, when their attractive young daughter, Miss Pauline Kindelberger, made her debut. All the ballroom suite was in use, flowers and palms adorning each room and the buffet table, from which MAKES DEBUT WITH SISTER.

MISS AGNES O'GORMAN, Whose coming-out yesterday, shared with Miss Anna O'Gorman, was a notable event.

The refreshments were served. Mrs. Kindelberger was gowned in white satin and pearls with touches of mauve tulle, and the debutante was dressed in a pretty white lace gown made over white satin. She carried from among the scores of bouquets her one of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The rest of the days compliments as expressed in flowers were arranged in a big, tall screen behind the debutante and her mother, with the overflow filling several tables and other places nearby. They formed a lovely collection.

Mrs. Charles C. Glover, Mrs. Franklin K. Lane, Mrs. James Mitchell and Mrs. W. J. O'Brien of Baltimore presided at the tea table. Miss Beatrice Clover, Miss Frances Williams, Miss Eleanor Morgan, Miss Frances Travers, Miss Frances Moore, Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, Miss Pocahontas Butler, Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Helen Brancorini Smith, Miss Julia Whiting, Miss Helena Elliott and Miss Rebekah Wilmer were the youthful assistants of the afternoon.

Mrs. Frances Greeno-Barr, who spends her summers at her country home in Montana and divides her remaining time in Washington, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burleigh Milton on 18th street. Mrs. Barr is an old school friend of President and Mrs. Marshall, and while in Washington this winter will renew many old acquaintances of former Indiana days.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Todd have taken an apartment at the Wyand.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wilkins entertained at a dinner dance last night at their residence in Massachusetts avenue in honor of Miss Frances Williams and Miss Frances Moore.

Representative Ernest W. Roberts of Massachusetts and Mrs. Roberts, former president of the Congressional Club, had dining with them last night Mr. and Mrs. Treadway of Massachusetts and Mr. and Mrs. Page of North Carolina, all going later to the club for the reception.

Mrs. Theodore J. Baldwin, Jr., and her sister, Miss Judge, entertained at a luncheon yesterday for Mrs. Laurson, daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Albert Mills. The other guests were Mrs. James Woodruff, Mrs. James F. Mitchell, Mrs. Army, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Hubble, Mrs. Britton Browne, Mrs. Hubble, Mrs. Wallace Cusachs, Mrs. Van Ness, Mrs. Fred Mears, Miss Mel man of St. Louis, Miss Harbison, Mrs. William Connor, Miss Hemphill, Mrs. Emory Smith, Mrs. Francis Huggles, Miss McClure, a house guest of Mrs. Baldwin, and Mrs. Sturges of Fort Meyer.
